

NEWS RELEASE – 19 April 2016

Hillside living at Swindon's newest development in Blunsdon

Hills Homes has commenced work on its eagerly awaited new 61 home development in Blunsdon, where the Wiltshire Downs meets the Cotswolds. Hillside, has excellent transport links to the motorway network and is located a short distance from local shopping and recreational facilities at Priory Vale.

The initial launch of this exciting new development comprises eight properties and offers buyers three bedroom semi-detached, three bedroom detached and four bedroom detached homes available for sale through local estate agents Atwell Martin.

Nick King, Group director – Hills Homes said: "The homes at Hillside have been built to Hills' exacting standards, constructed using modern construction methods and traditional materials that reflect the local architecture of Blunsdon. Each property features a bespoke Manor Interior kitchen with quality integrated appliances. The bathrooms have contemporary white sanitary ware and a range of the latest tiles from Porcelanosa."

"We have also incorporated specific energy efficiency standards to reduce homeowners' carbon footprint and keep energy bills low. Individually designed lighting and heating systems ensure the most economical and sustainable use of energy."

Steve Taylor, Atwell Martin's director of land and new homes comments "Hillside is a very exciting new development for Swindon. The site is located in an extremely convenient position that will attract all age groups of homeowners, from first time buyers to those looking for that ultimate move."

All properties for sale are available using the popular Help to Buy scheme. For more information please contact the sales office on 07815 940673 or Atwell Martin's Swindon Office on 01793 643643.

The onsite sales office is open from 10.00 – 16.00 Thursday to Monday. ENDS
